

HISTORIC PRESERVATION CERTIFICATION

APPLICATION — PART 1

(Pursuant to the Tax Reform Act of 1976)

Instructions: Applicant should read the instructions carefully before completing application. No Certification may be made unless a completed application form has been received (P.L. 94-455). Use typewriter or print clearly in dark ink to complete the application form. If additional space is needed to complete Part 1, use the reverse side or a separate plain sheet of paper clearly indicating the owner's name and mailing address. Part 1 of this application may be completed and sent to the appropriate State Historic Preservation Officer at any time during the year, and may be sent separately or with Part 2.

2. the second floor. The structure was built without plumbing, which was added later. A small fireplace in the living room is non-functional. A narrow wooden staircase joins the two floors and a transom over the entry door is an interesting feature.
3. Ridgely's Delight was a heterogenous community -- the well-to-do lived in large townhouses on Washington Boulevard and other main roads, while the working class lived in smaller townhouses on alley streets such as Dover Street. This structure is significant as a typical example of the human integration.
